Tiffany,

6-13-83

Well its another year with only one year left. I cant believe how fast it went by. I'm so glad we're still good friends. I know we will be friends for a long time even after we graduate. We definitely have to do some things together this summer. I know lately we haven't been as close as we were before. But I'm hoping all of that will change soon. We have to good a friendship to let fall apart. I know ^{you} and Mike will last a long time, so I dont have to say good luck with him. So for me & Dave it wasn't meant to be. But I'll be alright. After all, life goes on. I know over the summer we can have a close friendship again, because we will have alot more time on our hands we will have to do some serious partying to catch up on what we lost together. Well tiff I guess thats about it. Good luck next year, after all we will need it, and may all your dreams come true.

C/O,

Love ya always,

This book is created and produced for the Associated Student Body of
GANESHA HIGH SCHOOL
1151 Ganesha Blvd.
Pomona, Ca. 91768
and is dedicated to
The Graduating Class of 1983

Within the realm of Ganesha there lies a world unique unto itself. All around us, we witness and participate in activities and events that make this school exactly what it is: A tiny kingdom, sheltered and protected from the harsh and pessimistic world around it. To passers by, we appear to be just another place of learning, but to those who attend here, and those who have witnessed our glory, there is truly MORE THAN MEETS THE EYE...

This is the image of you as seen through the eyes of a blind man. He judges you, not on the color of your skin, or the way you appear, but on what you do, and what you say.

And so you Say,
and you Do,
and you are Judged.

Ganesha's Associated Student Body, known as A.S.B., has been a constant, active force in the activities here on campus. Led by Chris Melgoza, ASB President, the group has been responsible for several dances, new uniforms for many of our athletic teams, and the organization of both the Spring Fling and Fall Festival. Vic Nichols, director of the council, has the sometimes-confusing job of coordinating ASB, but the results, as most students will agree, are well worth the effort.

Football

COME AND GET IT!!! And with that cry the annual torture session known as Hell Week came to an official close. Football coaches and players alike were treated to a veritable feast prepared by members of Ganesha's Rally. The meal was a fitting end to a week marked by double practices, worming, and numerous other physical hardships. Topping off all the food and fun, a water balloon fight ensued, cooling everyone off nicely.

Now it's your turn Nancy.

Oh na na.

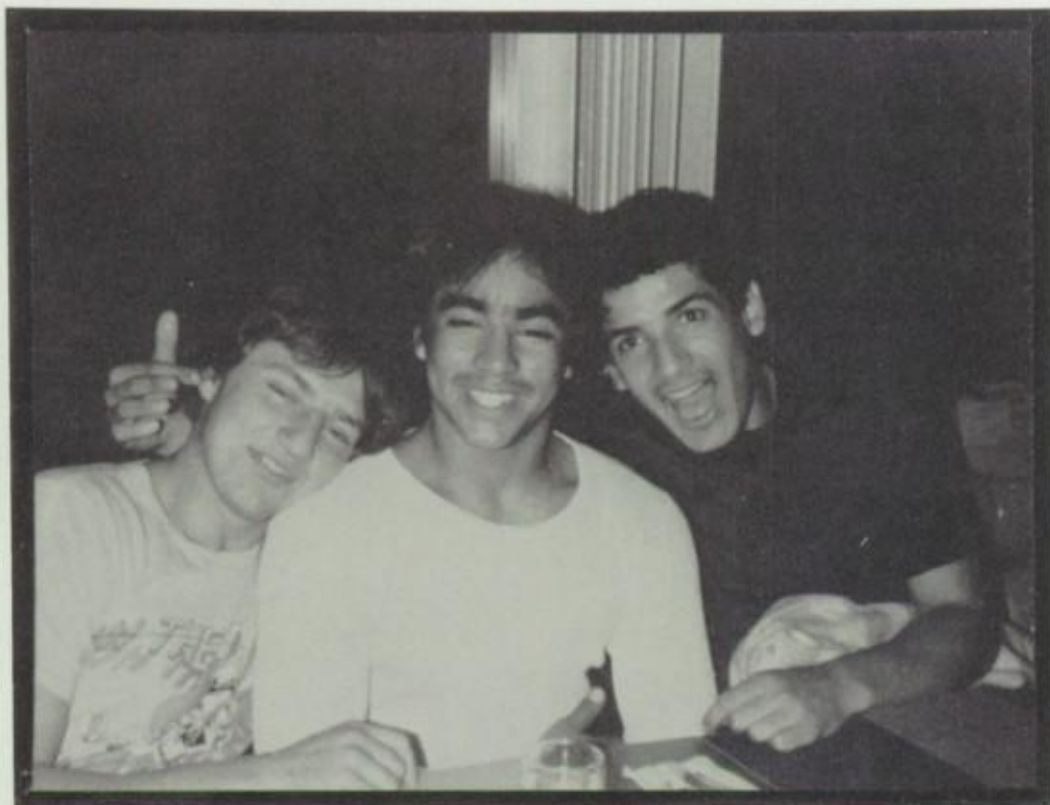

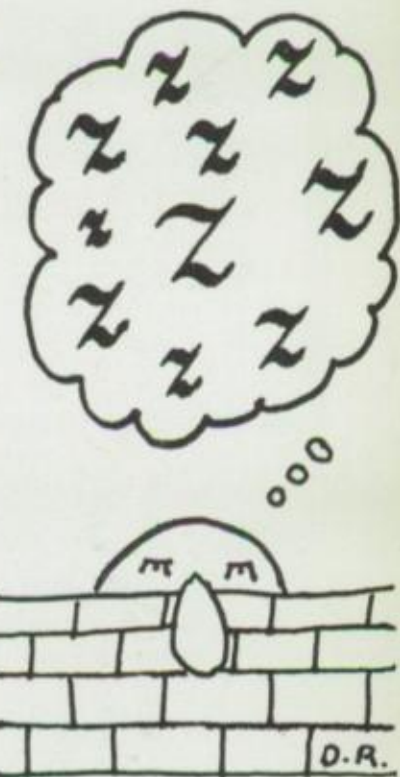

At 3:00 am, what do you expect?

"Hello? Mrs. Henning? You don't know me but I want to kidnap your son. No, I'm not crazy, I'm Alan's cheerleader."

That was a typical conversation between a rally member and the parent of a football player before the annual kidnapping.

On a rainy night in the middle of October, a few of the flagleaders got together and dragged their football players out of bed. The time was about 2:30 a.m. and the boys were not too happy about being awakened in the middle of the night. After all of the yawning and griping, the group finally made it to a local restaurant where 20 hungry people ate to their heart's content. When the $100 bill arrived, the guys got up and left the table and the girls washed dishes until dawn.

Hear no evil, See no evil, Speak no evil.

Willy, are you chilly?

On Oct. 22, the 24th annual HC Rally was held. The thirty-two semi-finalists who were chosen by their fellow classmates were presented at this event. We are dedicating these pages to those who are most admired by their peers.

Behind the scenes

Pass Those Pompons!

Love Those Legs!

Blam!

What type of person would do the kind of work the rally squad usually does? Well, once a year, the football players put on the show. These talented young men twirled, jumped, and danced into the hearts of many Ganesha students at the 'Backwards Rally' which was held on November 26.

This rally is just an example of the closeness that develops between the rally members and Ganesha's athletes over the year. "I felt like crying when my football players gave me the spirit boxes," said one sentimental cheerleader. The contents of the 'spirit boxes' varied from stuffed animals, to various food items, to small accessories such as perfume, hair clips, nylons, and jewelry. A few lucky girls even received such things as hand-made moccasins, caviar, wind chimes, and Christmas-tree ornaments.

The Backwards Rally is one of the most entertaining events of the year. "It was hilarious," stated one freshman, "I can't wait until I can be in it." "They have got to be crazy," said another, "or else they've got a lot of guts."

Backwards Dance

The tables were turned in November when Ganesha staged its 501-sock-hop-turkey-trot dance in the gym. The dance, held before the Thanksgiving break, gave the ladies a chance to ask that special guy out for a night of fun and excitement. The choice of dates was particularly ironic on some cases as many of the girls had a great deal to be thankful for; last-minute dates are blessings of a special kind.

RAIN RAIN GO AWAY

It's raining, it's pouring, "So why can't we go home," asked many Ganesha students as they looked at their flooded campus late in February. But the overflowing of planters and trashcans did not deprive the Giants of their education.

Some students like the rainy weather. Marjorie

Stearns just loves to sing in the rain. Others enjoy trying to dash out to P.E. without getting soaking wet.

But as all good things must come to an end, so must the mud fights and temporary swimming pools. Once again, the sun came out from behind the clouds and Spring prevailed.

CHRISTMAS

Ganesha students, returning to a more traditional celebration of the holidays, held their first annual Christmas Dance at MSAC. The function, which was sponsored by the Sophomore class, was said to be very successful in every aspect from attendance to voting for the Christmas courts. The young Ladies and Gentlemen portrayed here are testimony to the latter fact; they represent some of the finest young people that Ganesha has to offer her community.

VALENTINE DANCE

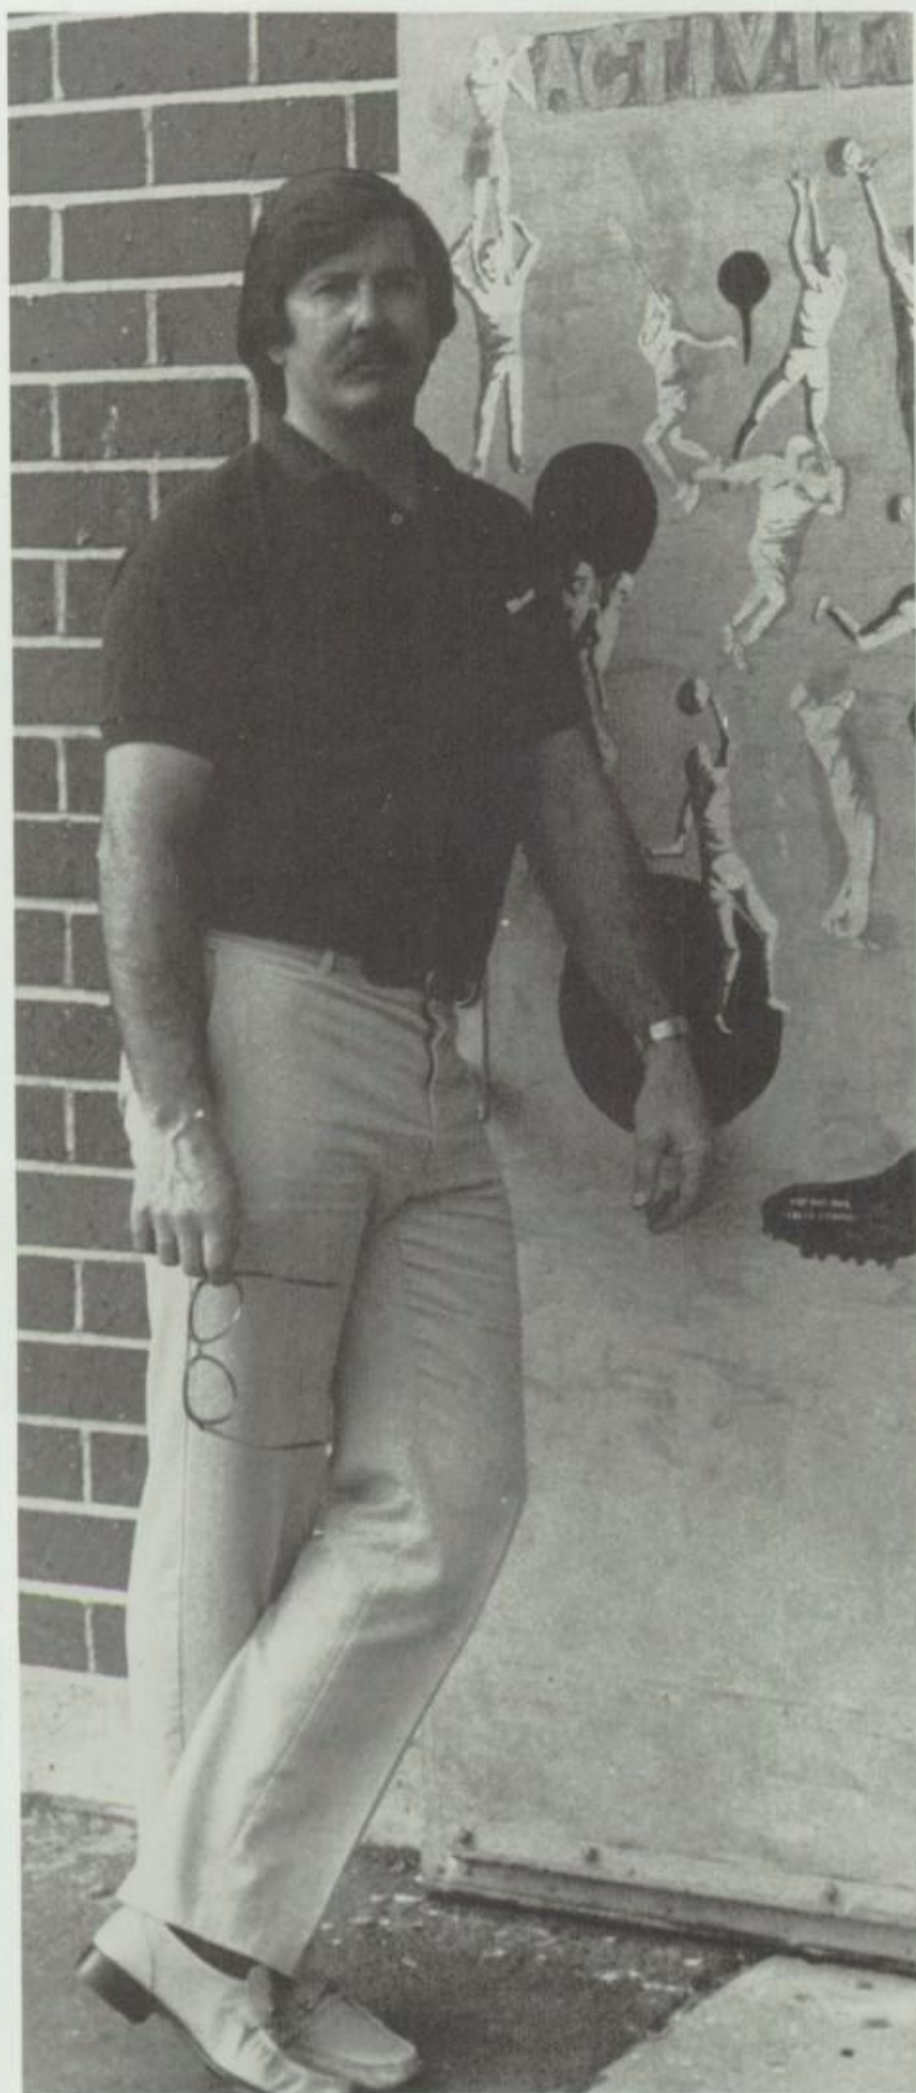

Traditionally, February 14 is the day for sweethearts to celebrate St. Valentines. This year, the Giants danced to the occasion on February 10. Even though the date was wrong, the spirit was more than there.

The decorations, flowers and DJ all added to the fun. "It was weird, not that many couples were there," stated one happy Giant, "But I had fun just going with my friends!"

VIC NICOLLES...

Vic Nichols, known to the Ganesha student body simply as Vic, can best be described as 'supernatural'. Here is a man who coordinates literally every activity on our campus, directs the district budget for transportation, and still has time left over to be a great guy.

Vic, who has been a permanent fixture at Ganesha since time immemorial, is the single, unifying force that keeps (or attempts to keep) everyone happy. He acts as a liaison to the Booster club, and enforces dress codes and eligibility levels for athletes.

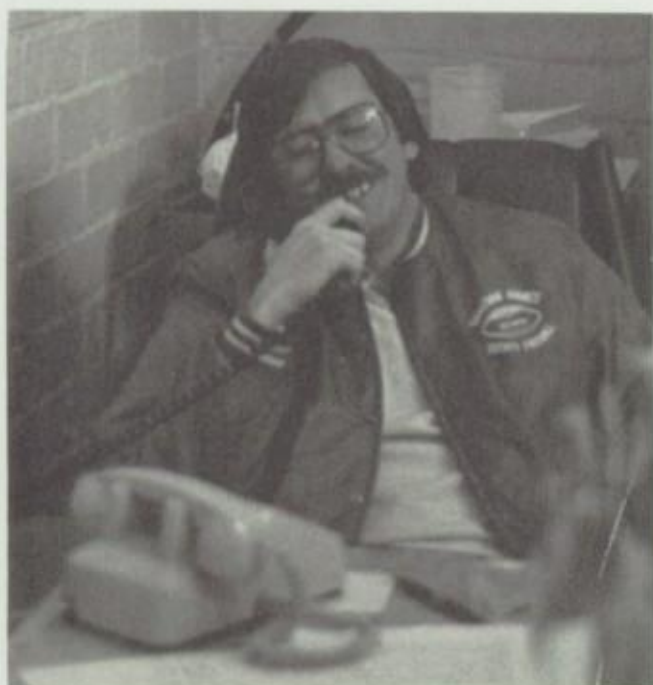

When questioned as to his opinion concerning the Activities program at Ganesha, Vic replied, "I believe this year that the Activities program at Ganesha is on the upswing. I attribute this to the leadership of the students, and their concern in bettering Ganesha."

Vic also has the sometimes harried position of coordinating all club and student council activities. If anything happens on campus after regular school hours, you can bet that Vic had a hand in it.

Besides fulfilling his regular duties, Vic has faithfully attended every home and away game for boys' varsity football and basketball. In addition to this, he has attended at least one game from every other sport, at every level, played at Ganesha.

If a young man (or woman) would like to be awarded a letter or certificate, then Vic is the man to see. His office also coordinates the handing out of these honors.

All in all, it would be nice if there were a few more hours in a day, and a few more arms to go around, but since there aren't, we're very privileged to have a man like Vic Nichols to do all the things he does so well. Thank you, Vic.

Serving as Vic's right arm is the remarkable Sarah Perry. Sarah, who can usually be found with a phone to her ear, is definitely not trying to, "phone home". Instead, she is usually trying to get a grip on the unending pile of paperwork that comes through the rm. 102 doors every day. It's a thankless job, and no doubt she would much rather be on a beach somewhere soaking up the sun, but Sarah takes it all in stride. All of us owe her a special thanks not only for doing a great job, but just for being the person she is.

DANCE

Esmeralda Ortiz performs an arabesque.
The Ethnic Dance class practices a plie.

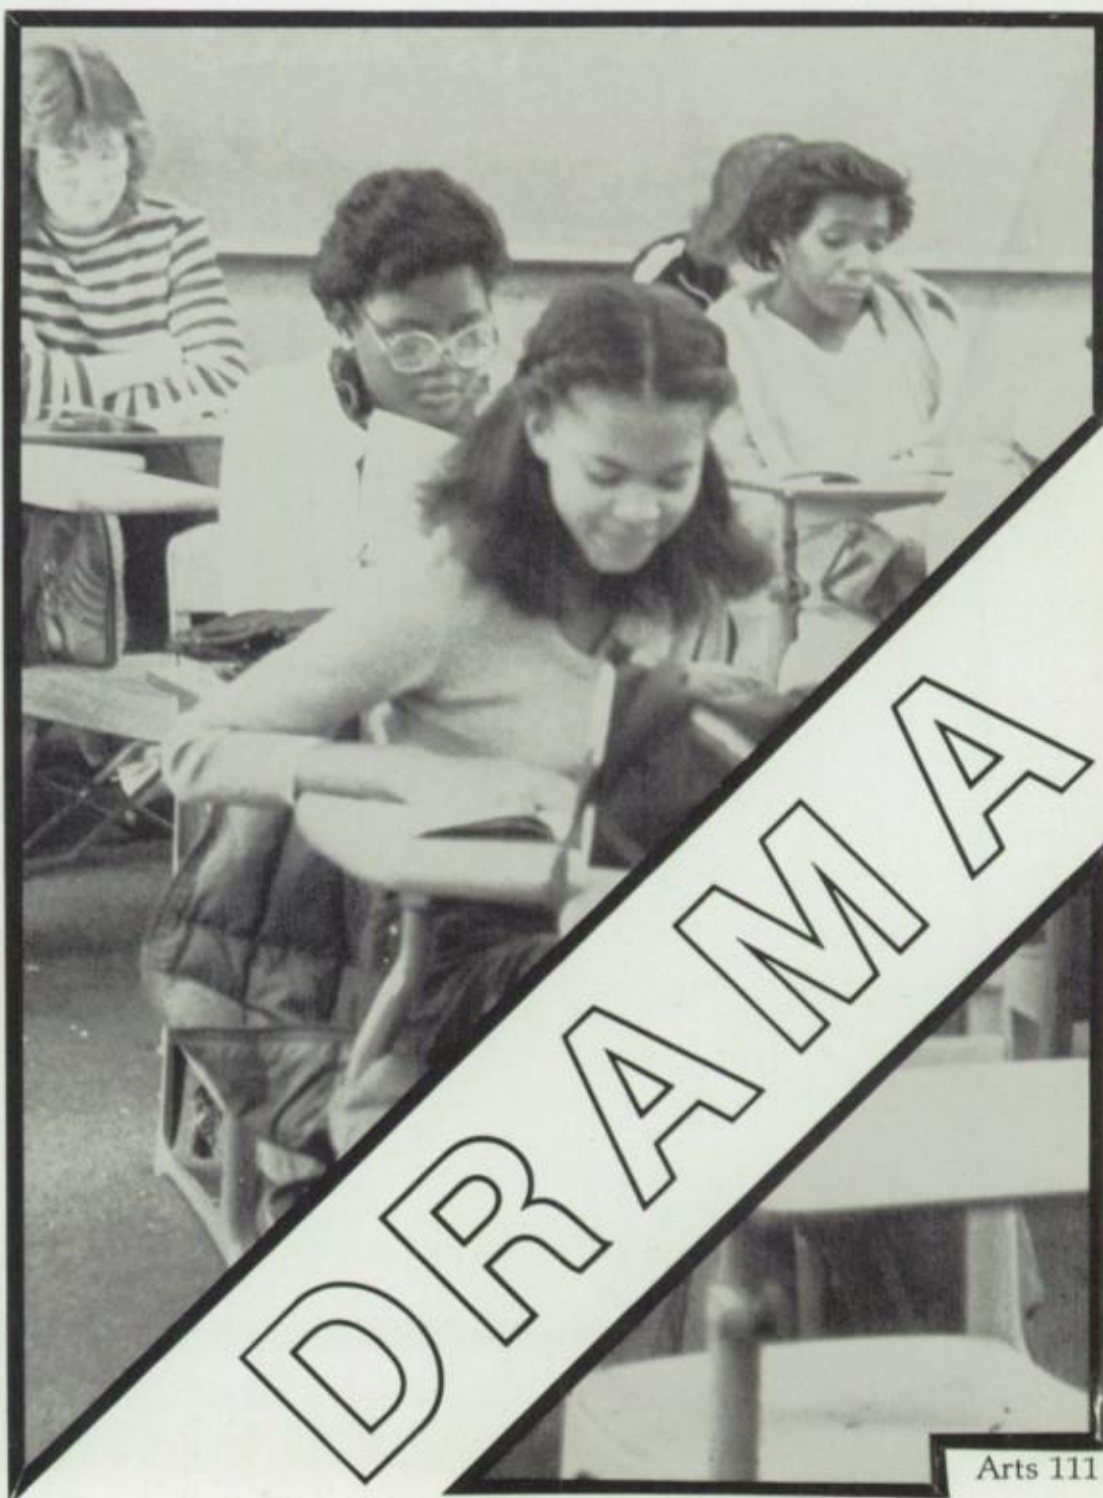

Anita Rultenberg says that she is very disappointed about this whole thing. She really would like to have more people show more interest in drama and theatre arts. She wants to do some kind of play during the year, but she really needs the students to be enthusiastic and energetic for the play to be really good.

There are several ideas that Miss Rultenberg has come up with as alternatives. One is to start having lunch time rehearsals and have a performance during lunch. But, again, she needs the enthusiasm of the students. "I can't run around passing out invitations for people to be in a play. They must come to me", says Miss Rultenberg.

Miss Rultenberg also wants to take a look at a few of the more modern plays. She says that if she can find a play that people would be more interested in, then maybe she can get more enthusiasm, energy, and excitement.

For Seniors Only...

SENIORS

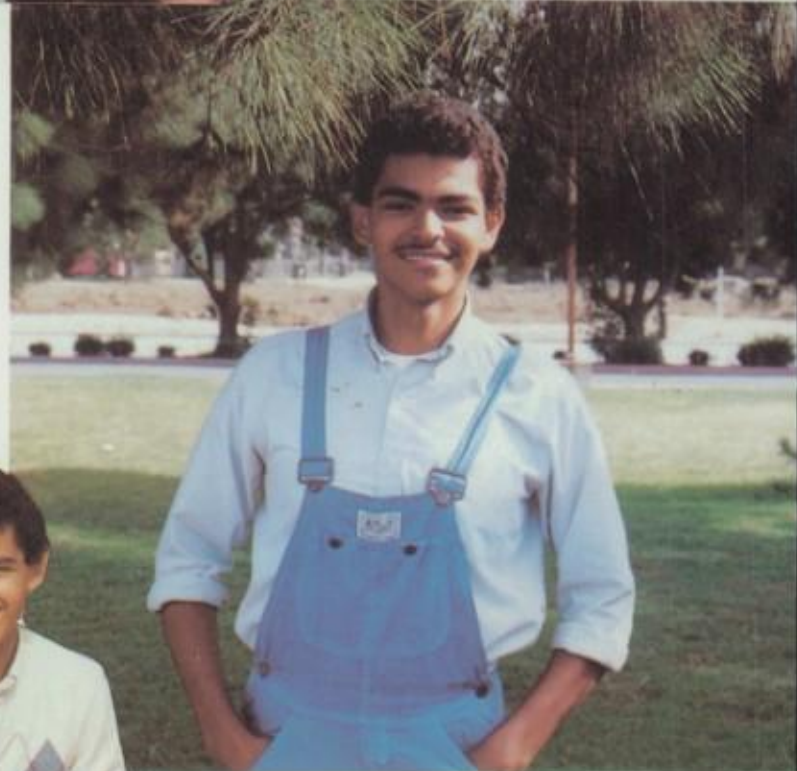

The student Officers for the Class of 1983 are a special bunch indeed. Led by their President, Karen M. Lester, they were an active part of Student Life this year. De Jon Fruga, Vice-President, did his best to keep the class active, and he had a great deal of help from Mindy Fernandez, Class Secretary, and Mark Trujillo, Class Treasurer. Behind the scenes, and always ready to lend a helping hand was the Senior Class Commissioner, Nancy Porter. Congratulations to all of them for a job well done.

Whether you notice it or not, Seniors can be found behind the scenes in almost every facet of life at Ganesha. In places where leadership and responsibility are prerequisite, a Senior can usually be found doing his or her best to make Ganesha great.

"Heart Gifts" — It's not the things that can be bought that are life's richest treasure. It's just the little "heart gifts" that money cannot measure... A cheerful smile, a friendly word, a sympathetic not are priceless little treasures from the storehouse of our God... They are the things that can't be bought with silver or gold, for thoughtfulness and kindness and love are never sold...

Look

To be chosen as BEST ALL AROUND by one's classmates is an honor indeed! Both Karan Lester, and her counterpart DeJon Fruga, combine personality with friendliness to personify all that is good in H.S. students. A GIANT "hats off" to these fine individuals.

Double Take! If you have seen either Carlos Zepeda, or Shari Dalton, then you have probably seen their counterparts, Peggy Allred and Jerry Romo. They were chosen as BEST BUDDIES by members of the Senior Class.

Would you buy a used car from these two? Most probably would; Shari Dalton and Dean Milligan were elected MOST PERSONALITY by their peers. Their winning combination of words and gestures makes them prime candidates for success in life.

School pride is the name of the game for these two! Dany Marcias and Chris Melgoza were chosen MOST SPIRITED by their classmates due to the fact that they appear to be everywhere at once, and always involved in boosting school spirit. It's hard to say where they find the time, but we could use more like them!

If you don't know Stephanie Johnson or Curtis Collins by now, then you're just about the only one. They were elected FRIENDLIEST by their classmates.

To be elected MOST LIKELY TO SUCCEED by one's classmates means that they feel you have the intelligence, personality, and desire to make something great out of yourself. This year's pair, David Simpson and Mia Chickamori, have all this and more. They combine wit and determination to show the world just who they are, and who they will become.

Even though they were voted SHORTEST, we can all look up to Chris Fernandez and Christy Varner! Chris, who won a scholarship to P.I.T. in his freshman year, is looking toward a career in electronics. The only one at Christy's house shorter than she, has got to be her adorable daughter, Darcel.

Ah, the sporting life! Both Caryn Taylor and Brian Mullan certainly know about it; they were chosen as the BEST ATHLETES in the Senior Class.

Going up! As long as you're looking at the clouds, stop and say hello to Mike Favreau and Laurie Fritz. They were chosen TALLEST by classmates.

Let's get Physical! Scott Corey and Therri Robinson certainly have; they were elected BEST PHYSIQUE by their senior class. How heavy is she, Scott?

If you've seen anyone from Hollywood lurking around, they probably want to speak with either Cindy Doke or Jerry Romo about a movie contract. Both were rightly chosen as BEST LOOKING by Seniors.

"Ain't love grand?" Steve Torti and Eva Colosimo certainly think so; they were chosen CUTEST COUPLE by the Class of 1983. Steve, a member of the Varsity Football squad, and Eva, a Cheerleader, personify the image of an American High School Couple.

The CLASS FLIRTS, Manzell Baskerville and Sonya Blaylock, were chosen after much debate and competition. Among other things, they had to pass a test involving various types of winking, whistling, and good opening lines.

Put on a happy face! Kelly Park and Phillip Pacheco do all the time, that's why they were thought to be HAPPIEST SENIORS by the Class of 1983.

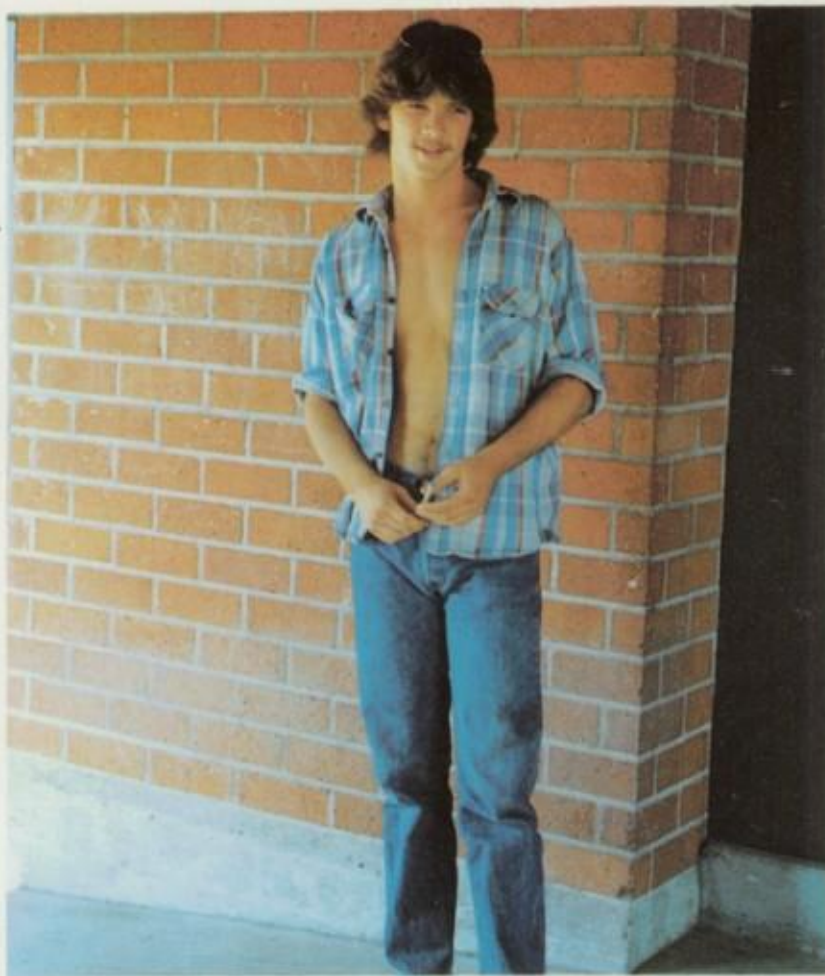

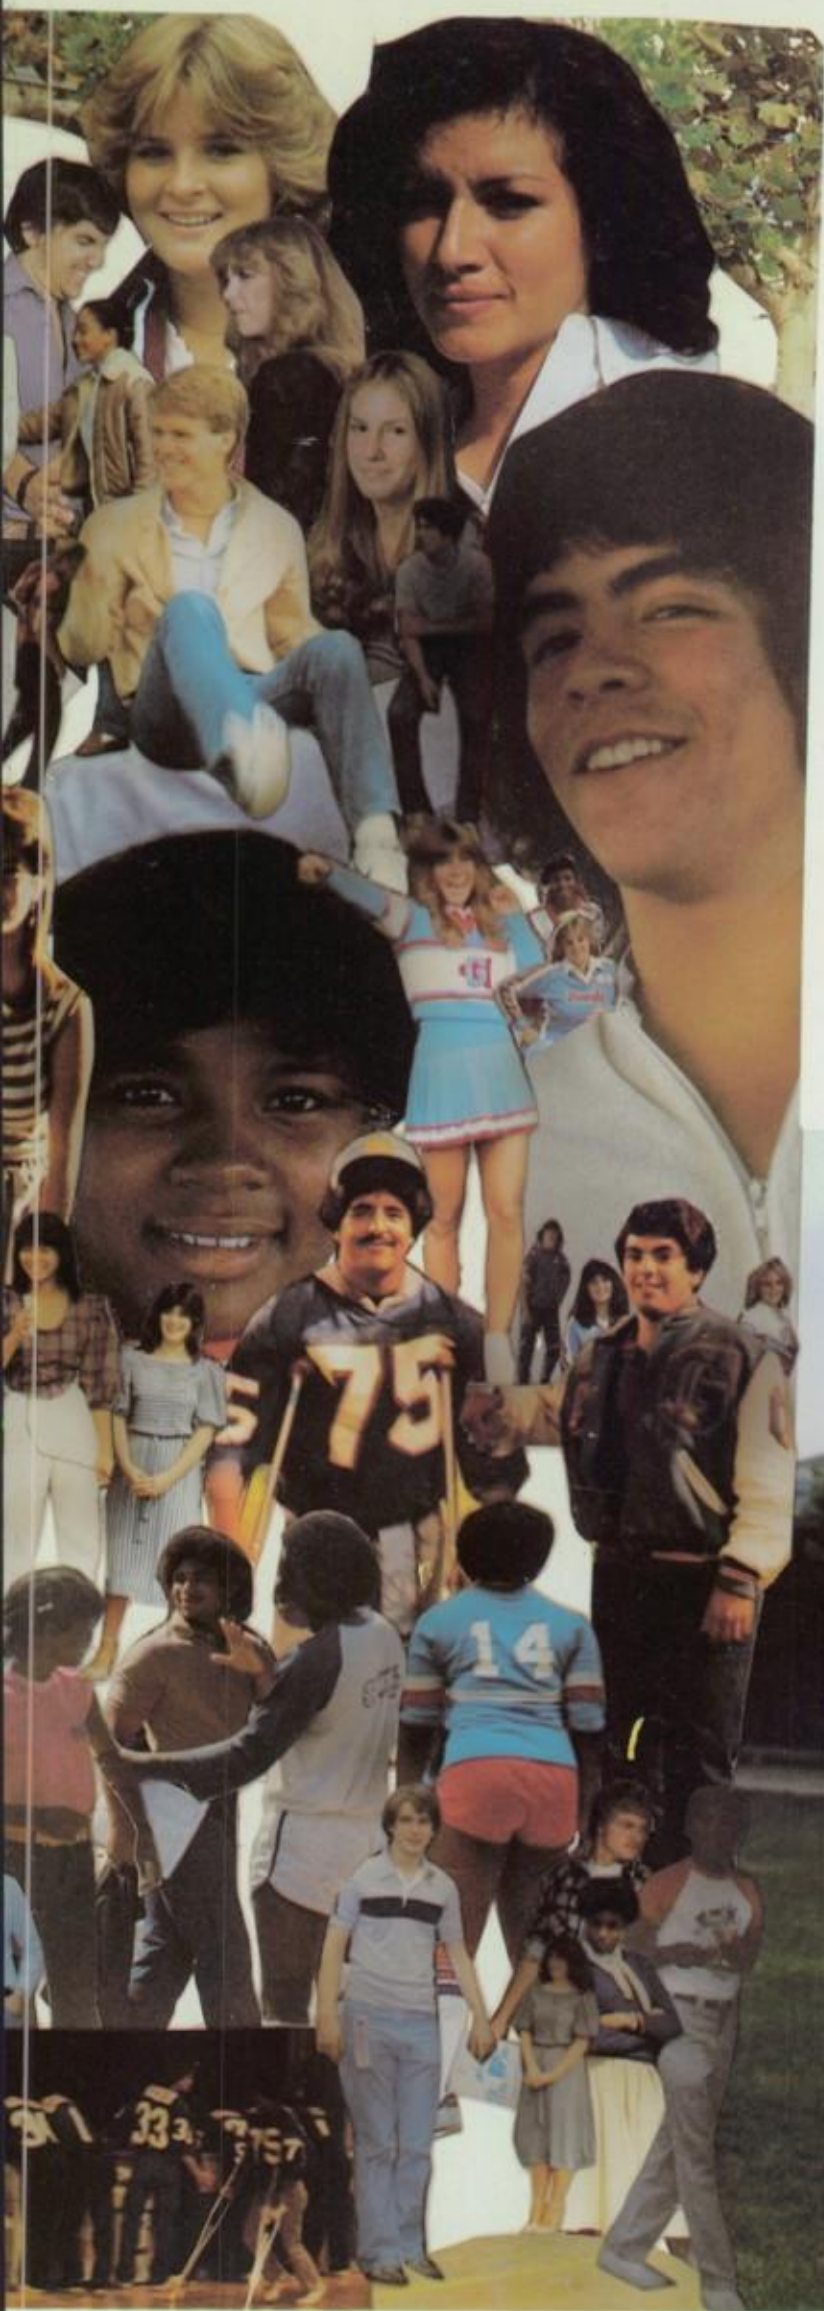

"Long and Silky", That's how one individual chose to describe Kimi Bingham's legs, and while the same can't be said about Steve Torti's, both can say they have the BEST LEGS in the Senior Class.

If there's anything funny going on, you can bet Mike Hunsucker or Nancy Porter had something to do with it! Both of them got a much-deserve MOST MISCHIEVOUS award from their peers.

Shhh! If you listen very carefully, you might hear either Mindy Fernandez or Anthony Landigiun say something. Both of these young people speak softly, but they carry a lot of charm. Maybe that's why they were both voted SHY BUT LIKEABLE by seniors.

RALLY "83"

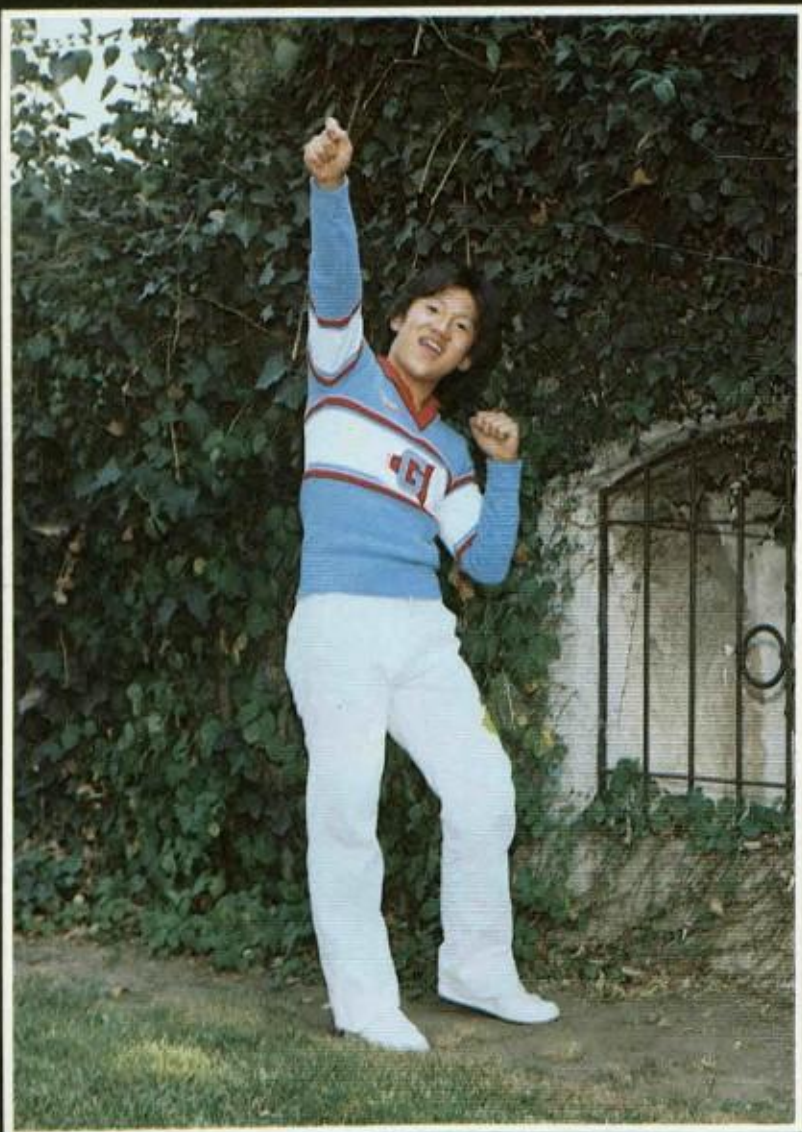

Left to Right, top to bottom: Kelly Barlow "lights up" rally with—Prettiest Eyes. Sugar and Spice and everything nice makes Betty Frank "Cutest". Kelly Feldsott—Best Body is Football's pin-up girl. A warm "Hello" and a wave make Sue Lester friendliest. Tonya Thompson flashed the smile that won her the title of Prettiest Smile. Anna Arellano is framed by the beautiful hair for which she is so proud. Lori Arellano smiles at the camera showing her "prettiest teeth". Kim Taylor lets glimpse her "cheese-cake".

Rockin' in Paradise... If you've seen this group of inspiring girls shake it at a rally this year, then you'll know what we mean when we say rockin' in paradise. They make being a songleader look so easy with the way they move: rhythm, style and timing are everything. They have shown everyone what being a songleader is all about. I'm sure that they will long be remembered for their dedication and hard work.

C.I.F.

What happens with a first place sports team at Ganesha High? They win their league and go to C.I.F., of course. C.I.F. (California Interscholastic Federation) had many teams from Ganesha. Football, boys' and girls' Soccer, and Boys' and girls' Basketball have all excelled! All of these teams were one of the best in their leagues. Ganesha is proud of its athletes. Good luck to all athletes past, present and future!!!

On Graduation
Class of '83

Also Congratulations,

On all your many accomplishments from early childhood through high school. You've worked hard to uphold family ideals and added class to our family. You've made us all very proud of the way you've matured into a capable responsible young adult, with good morals and faith in God, Country, and Fellow Citizens.

Our very best wishes and good luck as you travel life's pathways.

From

Mom Dad, and Christina

Marjorie Stearns

Dear Majorie,

Congratulations and thanks for being such a big part of my life. The best of luck to you in your future studies.

Love you,
Rich

Congratulations on your first big step to your future. Just keep up the hard work and you will find that all your hopes and dreams will all come true.

Love,
Mom, Dad, Harold, and Christmas

Karen Lester

I'd just like to take the time to say thanks for making the bad times good and the good times better. It's nice to have friends like you around. Very best of everything in college and in life. You deserve it!

Your friend always,
Missy

Michael G. Favreau

Your dedication to academic and athletic achievements at Ganesha will be valuable for the rest of your life. Excel in all you do and you'll succeed.

With love and pride,

Mom, Dad and Diana

Larry Bryant

Congratulations!
We are very proud of you.
With all our love.

Mom and Dad

Anthony Martinez

Our congratulations and the very best of luck to you in your future. Keep up the good work and we know you'll get all you want out of life.

Love,
Mom, Dad, Tom,
Willy and Andy

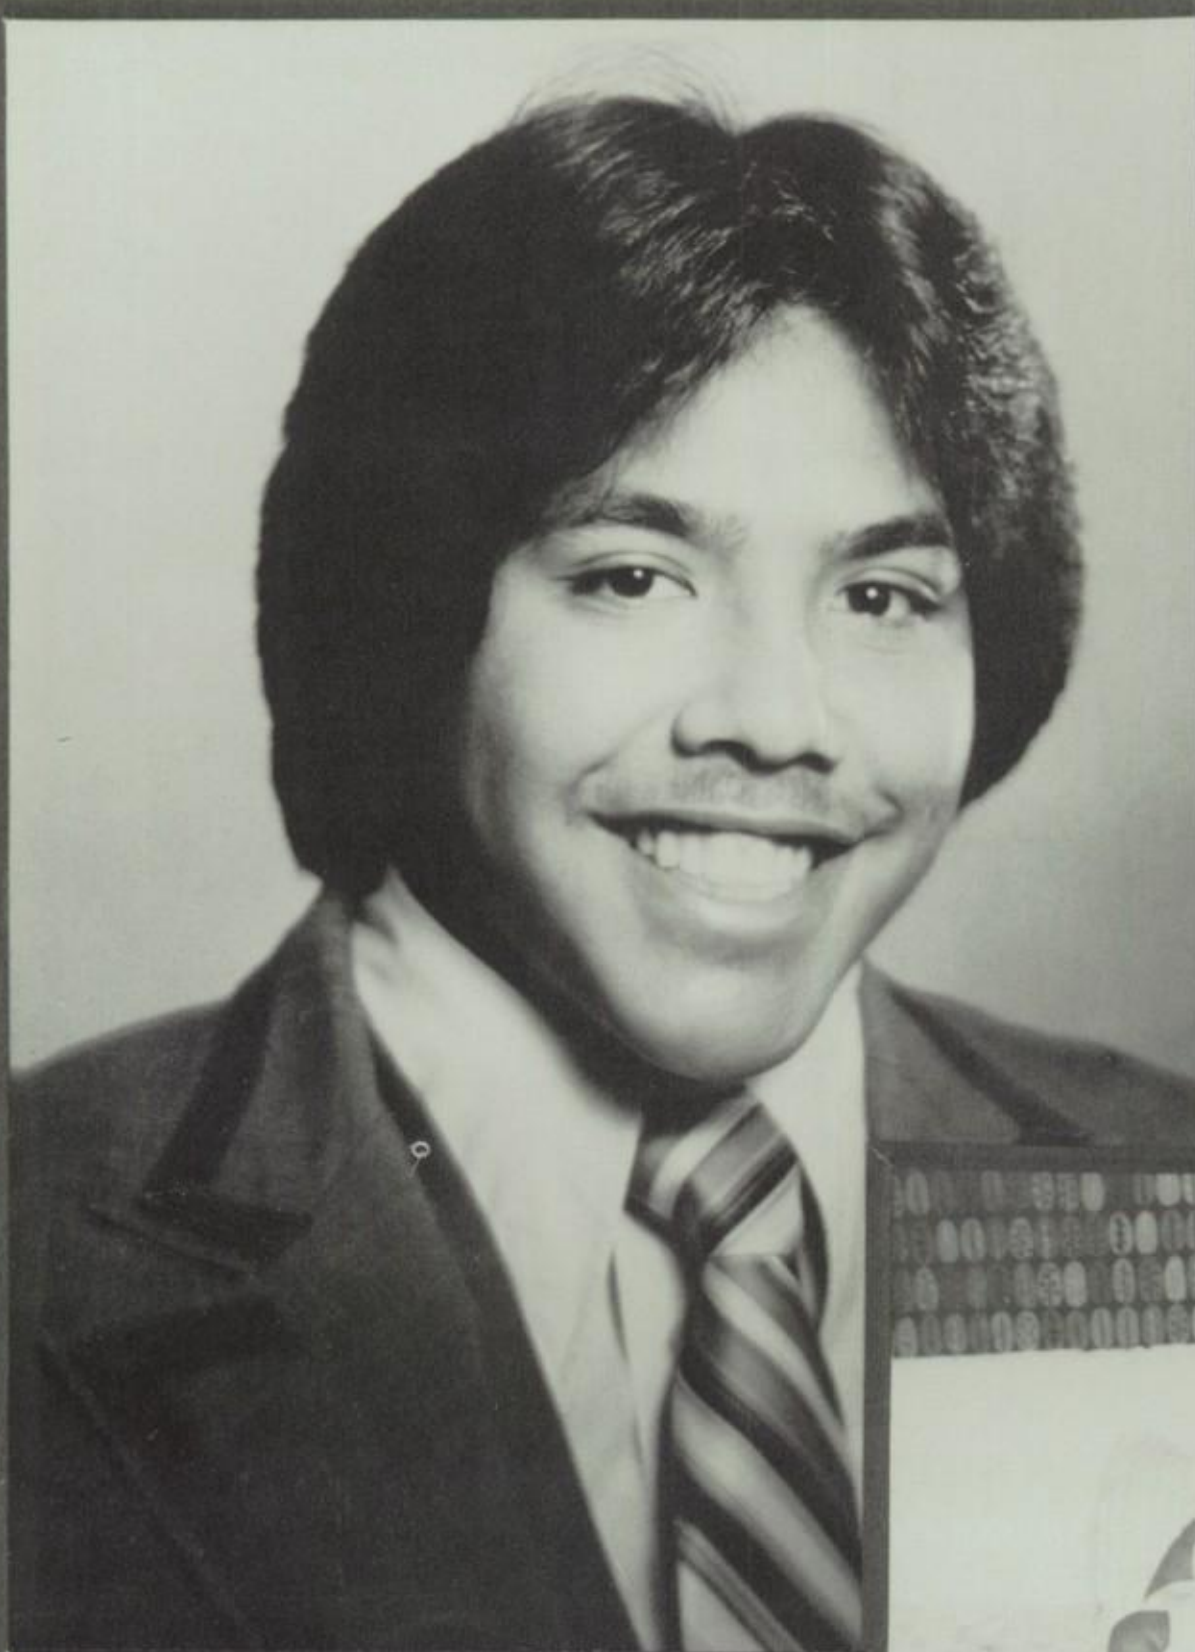

James Wieselquist

Congratulations to a wonderful son and brother, from a family who is very proud.

Love,
Mom, Dad, Shawna, and Sabrina

Anthony Landinguin

To Anthony John:

You have made us proud to have a son and brother like you. Keep faith in the "Lord" and He will guide your way to the future. We dedicate this verse to you: "God Grant Me The Serenity to Accept the things I cannot change and the Courage to change the things I can and the Wisdom to know the Difference"
GOD BLESS AND ALL OUR LOVE
Dad, Mom, Doug, and Louis

Shauna Williams

Dear Shauna,

Congratulations on your graduation! We are very proud of you, both for your academic excellence and especially for your beautiful and loving spirit.

All our love goes with you, now and in the future.
Mom and Dad

Greg Beltran

Right on Greg!

Rufus C. Nelson

My dearest Rufus,

I thank God for giving me such a special gift—my son. You are an immeasurable meaning and happiness in my life. May the joy of the Lord always be your strength.

Love,
Mom

Courtney Hoch

TO OUR DAUGHTER COURTNEY

We are so very proud of you. You have come such a long way, and the road has not always been an easy one, at times it's been rocky, but you have grown and matured so much in the last year, in your personal growth and with your walk with the Lord Jesus Christ. You father and I know the future holds so very much for you. We have waited with excitement for this very special graduation day, and we thank you!

Your future holds many more accomplishments. We know you will achieve them

We wait with excitement once again with you with each new step your future holds.

EPHESIANS 4: 17-19

And I pray that Christ will be more and more at home in your hearts, living within you as you trust in him. May your roots go down and may you be able to feel and understand, as all God's children should, how long, how wide, how deep, and how high his love really is; and to experience this love for yourselves, though it is so great that you will never see the end of it or fully know or understand it, and so at last you will be filled up with God himself.

Love you a lot
Dad, Mom, David and Amber

The Titan Honors

Ganesha High School,
has long been a breeding ground for some of the finest minds in Southern California. Here, within our halls of education,
lie some of the most gifted and respected students in the city. In the following pages,
The Titan would like to take an opportunity to honor these special people with the recognition they so richly deserve. Many have already received honors for their works, others have not. But all are special, and exemplify what youth, when properly guided, can become.

Dearest Dean,

Since the day you were born, we have been blessed with the pleasure of watching you grow into a very special person. We're proud of you and your accomplishments and have enjoyed just being a part of your life.

Best wishes for your future and remember we will always be there when you need us.

Love you always,
Mom, Dad, Keith, & Ryan

Your graduation — successfully reaching this goal which will enable you to reach another. Every step of the way, from your first till now has given us so many positive feelings. Reflections of love, joy, happiness, and pride shimmer in our hearts. We have many fond memories of what you have accomplished and how you have grown as a person. Up, up, and away; the best is yet to come! Let your mind reach for the stars and your feet be firmly planted on the ground.

We wish you all the best that life can bring as you move ahead. No matter what, we will always be here with our love and our support. Congratulations!

Love,
Mom, Dad, and Jason

Kelly,

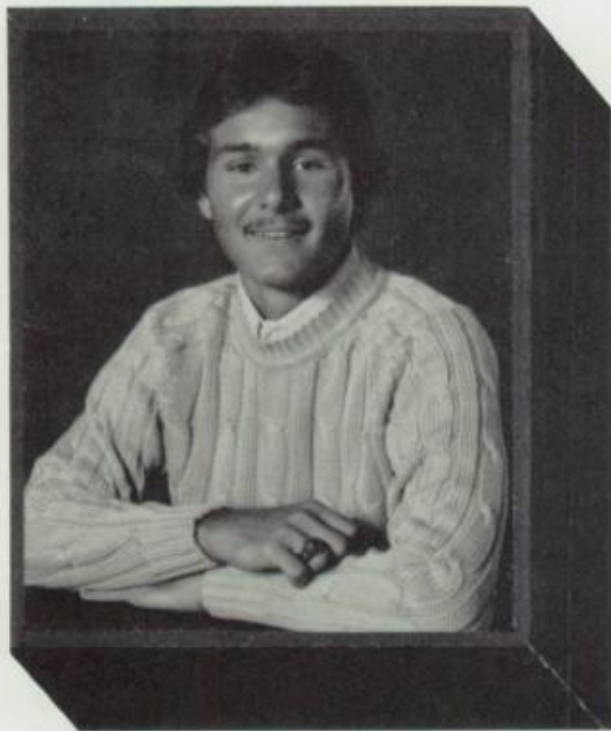

School has never been a downer for you. Since kindergarten, you have grown in mind and body, from girl to woman. You have made many friends and lost none. You have said, "My youth is coming to a close, I did not really have time to enjoy it." In reality you have reached another rung on the ladder of life, with more to go, until one day, you will reach the goal you set for yourself. Beloved daughter, friend, our hopes are riding high that you will succeed. We are proud to be your parents and pray that God will bless and guide your footsteps along the path that affords the greatest happiness for you.

Love,

Mum and Dad

Greg Inshishian

Congratulations Greg upon your graduation. We are proud of you and your accomplishments. Your cooperation with us and your conduct at school has been more than any parent could ask for. Your successes have set a solid foundation for your future endeavors. We wish you the best of everything.

Mia Chikamori - Valedictorian

John Jewell - Salutatorian

Shawna Williams - Valedictorian

It is not the things I learned in classes, not the facts learned while doing homework that I will remember about my years here. It is rather the experiences which happened to and around me which I will savor and at times long to return to.

It has been a good four years. I know of no other place I would have preferred to spend them. In spite of the shortcomings it may have, Ganesha is a good school, and I am glad to have spent some time in it.

I know there are those who will disagree. There are those who believe Ganesha is not a good school. They would rather spend their time elsewhere - never mind where, just away from here. I believe differently. I believe that what you put in is what you get out. Just as in life, a positive outlook will most likely produce positive results. As with any other school, Ganesha does have its problems. As with any other school, however, Ganesha does have its strong points. It is up to you to find them and reap the rewards. Only through you can you experience the magic.

My four year's experience at Ganesha was more to me than just going to school. While I did learn many things that have helped prepare me for college, I have learned many other things that have helped prepare me for life. I have found that it is easy for people to get along with each other as long as they are willing to overlook stereotypes and prejudices. I also have learned that to get something out of what you're doing, you have to put in something, especially in sports. It is often necessary to sacrifice a lot of time and effort, but in the long run it's worth it. It has been for me.

Need a notebook, gym shorts, or just have the munchies? Well, Ms. Van Zandt in the Student Store is the lady of the hour. The Store, which operates to provide the Student Council with funds, can furnish the student on the go with just about any necessity that can be imagined. As an added bonus, various groups around campus have begun selling doughnuts to raise funds for their activities. All in all, the Store provides a superior level of service for the GHS student body.

R.O.P.

What Is ROP?

The goals of a Regional Occupational Program :

... to train people for employment.

As the name implies, ROP's are "regional" and training programs are offered in a variety of sites throughout the community rather than in one fixed center.

ROP's have been called the "Invisible School" because many of the training programs are located in local businesses such as department stores, auto agencies, or insurance companies. Much of the training takes place "where the action is" - where the jobs are.

Landing A Summer Job

Because of inclination or circumstances, not all high school students have college as a goal after they graduate. Preparing for the immediate world of work is what some are aiming toward. Regional Occupational Programs help students by providing high quality vocational and technical job training opportunities. The programs also are available to out-of-school unemployed youth, unemployed adults, and handicapped students, depending upon the geographical location of their residences in a county or region.

Baldy View Regional Occupational Center, located at South Spring Street in Claremont, is a joint venture of the Bonita, Chaffey, Chino, Claremont, and Pomona School Districts. The separate school facility specializes in training people for entry-level and highly skilled jobs. A large variety of occupational choices are available at the Center, ranging from airline services, office and clerical, computer related, graphic arts, welding, and medical to retail sales, merchandising, drafting, law enforcement, fire safety and animal care. Training also takes place at various high schools.

And I took the road less traveled by,
And that made all the difference.
—Robert Frost

A number of years ago, I took what many would consider to be the road less traveled. My journey was long, and filled with many troubles, but I was fortunate enough to cross paths with many fine people in my time. Some were for only a moment, but others stayed, and our paths became almost as one.

A few of the many friends I've made are mentioned. Rest assured it would take volumes to thank everyone who has ever helped me, but I feel that a number of things need mentioning. As J.R.R. Tolkien said, "The road goes ever on and on..." Perhaps Ganesha is not the end of the road, but merely a beginning toward whatever lies over the next rise.

Well, there you have it. I suppose there are those who will say that I'm being more than a bit selfish by thanking my friends on a special page. Maybe this is true, but then again, there are terribly few chances in a man's life to do something good. This is my chance, and it is my privilege to take it.

Greg, what can I say, our jobs are unbearable. I think it's fitting that our comments are on this same page, it is symbolic. We are the first editors in a long time that have collaborated on the yearbook and the newspaper. Thank you for an outlook on life I never thought I would see in any friend, even if you do think I'm a space case.

I never seem to stop thanking the "Wonder Boy". Mr. Upchurch was a spiritual help. When deadlines, girls, grades and teachers were getting me down, Matt somehow made me laugh. In all the eight years we have been through (D.B. High, Tioga and utaa!) I never have appreciated your friendship more. You really are the master of the five minute layout.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank Dr. Duff and the Ganesha Student Council.

Mrs. Tewkesbury, this is one editor that is not going to forget to say thank you. As I watch you now, I am reminded that your job is twice as hard as the job Greg and I do. I'm sorry that I couldn't do the best job possible, all of the time, but you know how hard things are sometimes. One more thing, I feel an 'English Trifle' attack coming on!

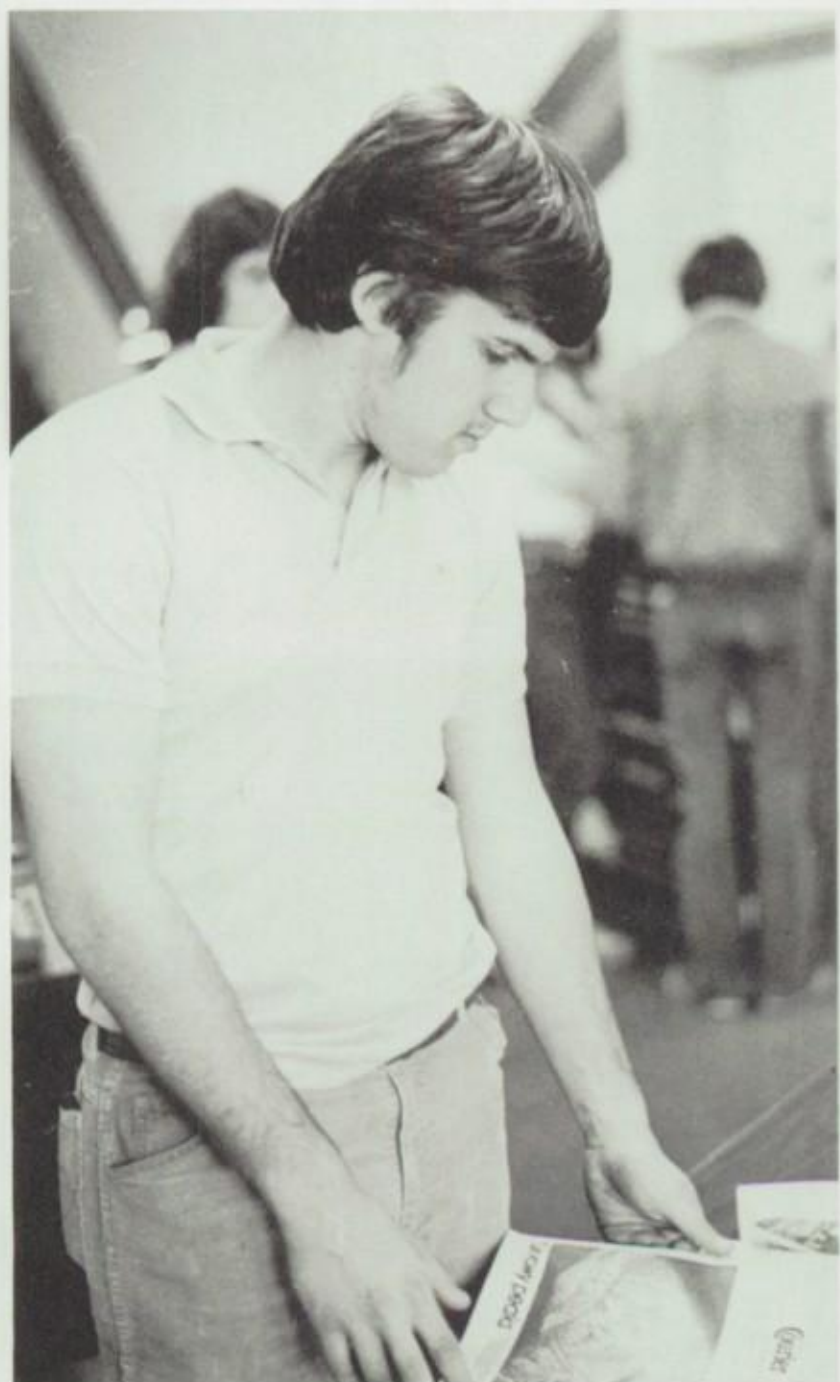

Ganesha's Giant Stride took on a new look this year with the resumption of off-campus printing and typesetting. This led to a more "journalistic" looking publication, along with greater acceptance from the student body.

The Stride was also fortunate this year to receive funds both from the District, and the Student Council. This made the financial burden of printing the first issue relatively easy.

You must remember though that funds do not a newspaper make. The staff is the lifeblood of this publication. The staff is always doing something (even if it isn't important i.e., stealing the editor's hubcaps, covering Rm. 51 with polka-dots, juggling x-acto knives, and coming to class with 20 McDonald's lunches). In any case, they always seem to meet deadlines and help with the publication.

I would like to thank everyone for a year that has brought the newspaper back to the standard our school deserves.

Anthony Cardenas, Editor

Editor-in-Chief - Anthony Cardenas

Anthony, who is responsible for producing and overseeing the Stride, has been a student at Ganesha for two years. He has a sincere dedication to the production of a quality newspaper. Although the staff of the Stride take individual responsibilities, the final burden of producing our newspaper falls on Anthony's shoulders. Going to an off-campus printer is a big responsibility for an editor, and Anthony handles this job very well.

Advertising Manager

Although the Stride is funded partly by district and school funds, the paper would not exist without the ads Matt digs up. He alone supplements outside funds so that the paper can be published off campus. Matt works constantly. He not only does the ads, but also the unfinished work of others. He is an asset to our newspaper and our school.

Matt Upchurch

Managing Editor Heather Rem

Heather does her job like no one would. Who in their right mind would take the responsibility of proofreading, organizing, and overseeing everything that goes on in journalism. The editor could not survive without the Managing Editor.

STRIDE

Sports Editors- Derek Engdahl and Robert Epps

These two guys were given the horrendous task of the sports page. Within one day, they had everything under control. Robert, as a first year journalist, jumped right on the staff. Aside from his editing chores, he has been our photographer throughout the year. Derek has done a fantastic job this year, but he really should be congratulated for the position he will take next year. As Editor-in-Chief, he will take on the full responsibility of the Stride.

Copy Editor

Richard Hernandez

This enterprising young man is tireless. He is probably the only Stride member that has all his work in on time.

When the editor says he needs a story in five minutes, Richard is the only reporter capable of producing that story in that amount of time. He is what every newspaper is made up of — a workaholic.

STAGE I: THE IDEA
STAGE II: THE PLANNING
STAGE III: THE SET-UP
STAGE IV: CLICK
STAGE V: THE LAY-OUT
STAGE VI: PRESSURE
STAGE VII: ZZZZZ

Pressure? What pressure? As I'm writing this, my vocal alarm clock has just informed me that most people are asleep at 2:45 in the morning, but such is not the case for me. By 9:00 tomorrow, I'm supposed to turn 34 pages into the plant, and at last count I had all of 3½ of them completed. Please don't get me wrong, there's no pressure on me at all! Actually, I rather think I'd like being strung up by my thumbs...

Such is the life of a yearbook staffer.

Contrary to the "Country Club" image that many have, working on the TITAN is a rough business indeed. Many a time have staff members worked late into the night, at weekends, and even through vacations to bring Gan-esha the best yearbook they can.

TITAN

Matt Upchurch. The Original Ad man. Matt can usually be found with his head bent over a lay-out in the back room. He possesses an unnatural affinity for border tape, which is something to be proud of indeed. Thanks for all the little things, and thanks for getting us out of the red-ink blues, but most of all, thank you for being my friend.

Karen Lester. Special. If I didn't need to fill up all this space, that's all I'd need to write about Karen. How many people do you know can manage to be a section editor, Senior Class President, and still have time left over to be a wonderful young lady as well. For all the times I ruined your pictures, and all the times there were no pictures to ruin, I apologize. For all the times you showed me when my head wasn't on straight, and you set me down gently, thank you with all my heart.

Kathryn Spence. This young lady has brightened the lives of everyone she meets. If there's ever been a person with more personality and class than Kathryn, I've not been fortunate enough to meet her. Thank you for all your help on everything, and please keep Mark out of trouble next year. All my love.

Mark Troutman. Editor-in-waiting. Every staff needs a troubleshooter, and we had Mark. With the exception of a few triangular pictures, he has done an outstanding job on the Arts, Activities, and J.V. Sports sections. If his work on this year's book is any indication, then Ganesha students have a great deal to look forward to in next year's TITAN. Good luck, Friend.

Jennifer Burke. Let's talk about a worker. I honestly believe that if everyone on the staff were to drop dead tomorrow, Jennifer would be able to handle the book with the greatest of ease. She coordinated and produced what looks to be the finest Senior Section Ganesha has ever had. Thanks for all your help, Jenny. There'll never be anyone quite like you.

Dawn Mc Daniels. Sports Editor Extraordinaire. Dawn is one of the few people who could keep the sports section together without coming unraveled herself. I wish her the best of luck in next year's endeavors. Stay Happy.

John W. Bass. The man with the names. John can usually be found in the back room up to all manner of mischief, but occasionally he finds time to produce the book's index, and be one helluva good friend. What's the word.....

Missy Repp. One of the nicest people I know. Thanks for putting up with me during all the times both good and bad. It is a pleasant feeling being able to call you my friend.

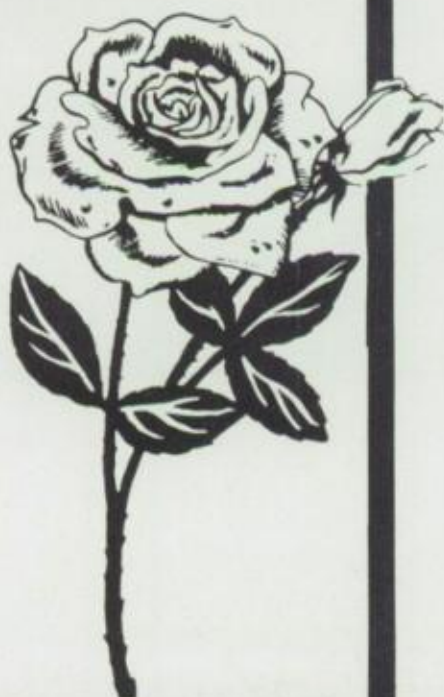

Chris Hamlin. Patient. Whenever he needed a picture, it often seemed that I was too busy even to say hello. Thank you for being one of the finest people I have known, and best of luck in the future. Remember the Polka-dotz!

Loa Tewkesbury. As you might imagine, this lady is very special to me, and to many others in Rm. 51. She has taught me more than any other in the ways and means of live. For all you have shown and taught, I thank you. For all the times you let me bang my head against the wall until I saw the truth, I thank you again. Most of all, I thank you for being you.

Vivian Quintana. Nobody can possibly be this nice, and still be human. Nobody, that is, except Vivian. Thank you for putting up with the eccentricities of an old photographer. Don't ever change.

Dear Greg:

Thanks for being a little part of everything. And thanks for leading us to produce this beautiful yearbook. Without you things might have been ordinary, with you they are spectacular.

Much affection,
Twks and the class

Tiffany,

June 10, 1983

Hi, I'm so glad we got to be such good friends this year tiff. I really hope you don't forget about me during the summer we'll have to plan something to do as soon as school gets out alright. I wish you all the luck with the guys and I hope you get what you want out of life! Cause you certainly deserve it and I'm not just saying that. If I end up moving to Hemet you better keep in touch with me and I know you know me good enough that I'll be back down here all Kinds. Sound familiar? Well it should. Don't let anyone write on the rest of this page cause I want to write on the whole thing just give me a chance alright? Hope we stay friends forever.
